Families may choose to pay off their student's entire balance at any point.

On Monday, February 11, 2019, we will hold an optional informational meeting for all families and students interested in participating in this trip. A representative from Bob Rogers Travel will be available to answer any questions regarding the online Individual Payment System (IPS).

All students and parents will be required to attend a meeting in February 2020 to receive final information pertinent to the trip. Please see reverse for more detailed information. Students traveling with the band will have an individual fundraising account with the SHS Band Boosters to apply toward their trip. Students who participate in these fundraisers will have funds applied to their remaining balance at regular intervals. Families may find their current student account balances at any time using Charms.

Money raised through fundraisers is the sole property of the SHS Band Boosters and is not refundable or transferrable. The only exception to this is for immediate families with multiple students (e.g. siblings) continuously enrolled in the band program.

All trip payments made through the online Individual Payment System are non-refundable. Payments will be charged to the credit card on file on the dates listed on the next page.
